Rudolph Run 2026

We are super excited for you to take part in this year's Rudolph Run & Relay.

To make things easier for you, we have put together a pack of fun resources to use in the lead-up to your event or on the day itself.

With something for all ages and abilities, we hope this will help to make your participation in our event easy and fun.

Simply print whichever resources are most useful to your students and get everyone involved in this wonderful event - all while making a difference to bereaved children in Norfolk.
